Old Business

Sheldon Huppert reported that he and Gary Huppert, Larry & Sharolyn Johnson, and Everett & Barb Muhlhausen attended the Wisconsin Towns Association Meeting on November 3rd. Sheldon and Gary spoke to the group which 6 towns were present and 11 were not in attendance. Sheldon explained the procedure to attend future town board meetings for the 11 towns not present to inform them of State Statute 23.33 and the goals of the Pierce County ATV/UTV Association to have all towns adopt State Statute 23.33 per Highway Commissioner Chad Johnson's request in order to open any future county road requests.

Tina Huppert received the Pierce County ATV/UTV Association stickers for ATV's and UTV's and they will be mailed to new members and current members can pick them up at the meeting tonight or future meetings.

New Business

Treasurer Tina Huppert received a bill for services for obtaining the Tax Exempt Status. Motion by Daryl Fay, seconded by Hank Lazarz, to approve the bill for $340. Motion passed.
